

RAIL CO-OPERATION PLAN PROGRESSES

McCHORD TELLS UTILITY COMMIS-SIONERS ITS ULTIMATE SU-
CESS IS ASSURED

WANTS JOINT SUPERVISION

By Associated Press

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 14.—Plans for co-operation between the Interstate Commerce Commission and State Railroad Commissioners in regulating railroad service have been carried sufficiently far to insure their ultimate success, Chairman McChord of the Federal body, declared today in an address before the national convention of Railway and Public Utilities Commissioners.

The joint exercise of State and national authority with elimination of conflicts between them, he said, would put the transportation utilities of the country to their greatest use.

"Within the realm of commerce there are no conflicts," Chairman McChord said, "and the building up of symmetric rate structures for the use of Interstate and Intrastate shippers can best be accomplished beyond question, by harmony of purpose and action among the respective regulatory bodies."

"There can be no conflict of authority in harmonious action taken in the interest of the public, for the development and efficient application of the plan we need no statutory authority or assistance."

Mr. McChord explained that the method adopted was that of having State commissions associate with the Interstate Commerce in discussions on matters of mutual interest, and having State commissioners take all necessary orders from their respective commissioners.

A report urging adoption of the Railways Labor Board and the transfer of its functions to the Interstate Commerce Commission, together with a statement of legislation that would enable the commission to enforce its orders, was submitted to the convention today by the Interstate Commissioners' on Public Utilities.

The report declared such steps would prevent a recurrence of the recent railroad strike, and said they would tend toward settlement in favor of public ownership of utilities. The report's full sentiment for public ownership was growing rapidly throughout the country.

The report declared that while the Interstate and Intrastate Commerce Commissioners' functioning demonstrated was established that "that policy is failure."

"This system is wrong in principle," the report states, "and has proved disastrous in practice, as shown by the railroad strike. It appears in this light that this strike that the railroad was well-combined by the railroads."

The report declared that while the

Shore Woman Says Compensation Has Been Dissipated

Atlantic City, Nov. 14.—Charging that her husband has squandered several thousand dollars she received as compensation for injuries suffered in the Hurricane, a woman at Winslow Junction has filed a Mrs. Lorraine Mittleman caused his arrest here today.

Mrs. Mittleman, who is still suffering from the injuries she received and has virtually lost her voice, declared that after settlement was made by the railroad her husband induced her to advance $200 for the purchase of a home which was placed in his name.

Several months ago, she declared, he has secured various amounts from her until the sum is virtually gone.

Becoming suspicious from what neighbors told her, Mrs. Mittleman started an investigation, and declares that all of the money which she believed was being misappropriated has been dissipated.

Mr. George Mittleman, a young son was injured in the crash at Winslow Junction, Mrs. Mittleman was the most seriously injured, and was unable to leave the local hospital for several weeks.

Mittleman was released under $1,000 in police for a further hearing when arraigned before Magistrate Waldmeyer.

URGE GENERAL STRIKE

I. W. W. Ordered Not to Handle Goods from This City

Chicago, Nov. 14.—A general strike in essential industries next spring, to force the release of the sixty-nine members of the Industrial Workers of the World held in Federal prisons since last summer, was urged yesterday at the conclusion of the I. W. W. convention.

The Agricultural Workers, branch of the I. W. W., in convention in Minneapolis last week, favored a general strike next spring, and the local convention is expected to take a stand for the passage of work.

A long-time goal of the convention was the right of collective bargaining for workers in all parts of the country, and the San Pedro strike, which is under way in Portland, Ore., San Leandro, Calif., and Philadelphia, The local convention voted to send a cable to transport workers in all parts to refuse to handle goods from Philadelphia has been issued by the strikers.
